ENEL AMERICAS APPOINTS FINANCIAL ADVISERS FOR A POTENTIAL MERGER WITH EGP

Santiago, October 19th 2020. Enel Américas decided to appoint Morgan Stanley and BTG Pactual as financial advisers in the operation that aims to merge the non-conventional renewable energy generation business owned by Enel Green Power in Central and South America (except Chile).

The transaction was announced to the market on September 21st through an essential fact in which it was also communicated that it will be treated as a related parties transaction (OPR), which means that it will be subject to all the procedures and requirements contemplated in Article 147 of the Corporations Law, this as a protection mechanism for minority shareholders.

The documents and presentations related to this operation are available to all shareholders on the company's website:
