

ENERSIS AND ITS SUBSIDIARY ENDESA CHILE DENY LEASING SHARES IN ORDER TO LOWER THE PAYMENT OF PERMITS

19-02-2015 Santiago

Santiago, February 19, 2015. Enersis and its subsidiary, Endesa Chile, publically clarify that the information issued yesterday in a TVN press release, concerning an alleged lease of shares by both companies to lower the payment of permits, is totally false.

Santiago, February 19, 2015. Enersis and its subsidiary, Endesa Chile, publically clarify that the information issued yesterday in a TVN press release, concerning an alleged lease of shares by both companies to lower the payment of permits, is totally false.

Enersis and Endesa Chile state the following:

1. Enersis and Endesa Chile do not lease their own shares or third party shares.
2. Neither of the companies have lowered the payment of permits by means of any mechanism involving the lease of shares and have always paid the legal maximum amount.
3. Enersis and Endesa Chile have not been consulted by any media about this subject.
4. As usual, Enersis and Endesa Chile are available to clarify any doubt regarding this matter.